Ted Breihan has been a San Marcos community leader for over 50 years. The museum is proud to have had Ted as a board member from 2000 - 2014. A graduate of Texas State University in 1953, Ted has served on the San Marcos City Council (1974-1980) and the boards of the Southside Community Center, the Scheib Center and the Campus Christian Community Center. Additionally, Ted has served on the board of his church, United Methodist Church, for decades, and provided yeoman service for its construction committee as the church planned and initiated a major building program. The Lyndon Baines Johnson Museum is honored to name its annual golf tournament in Ted's honor:
